

Goods on Country: the money, drawn

Where each dollar comes from, what it buys, and where it ends up. Asked $750,000; signed $0.

One bed

$750: about $262 makes it, $100 freight and $100 community work are absorbed, and $288 reaches Goods on Country. When a community organisation sells a bed, the whole $750 is theirs.

The year to June 2027

LINE	AMOUNT	PAID FOR BY
Two community production facilities	$300,000	QBE Foundation, if awarded
400 beds of first stock, 100 for each of 4 community organisations	$300,000	Three grants, 133 beds each
