

Philanthropy buys the first beds

$300,000

Tim Fairfax Family Foundation, Brian M. Davis Charitable Foundation, Snow Foundation. 133 beds each at $750.

$300,000 for 400 beds

Goods on Country

The Butterfly Movement Ltd, a DGR1 charity. Makes the beds at its Queensland facility and hands them to community organisations as stock. Every $750 bed: making $262, freight $100, facilitation $100, $288 carries the organisation.

no money back to Goods

400 beds as stock, 100 each

Four community organisations

100 beds each. Theirs to sell or give out. They invoice the customer and keep every dollar.

$750 a bed, stays
in community

SEFA lends the first-year running cost

$150,000

Backing the Bold loan. Repaid from the beds Goods sells.

$150,000 loan

repaid from beds Goods sells

QBE Foundation builds two facilities

$300,000

$150,000 each, where a community is ready and asks.

$300,000, two facilities

Two community production facilities

Community-run. Make beds locally for the same customers, and employ local people.

presses,
training, the plans

beds made locally

Customers

Health services, schools, housing programs, families. They pay the community organisation.